

Dear Chairman Powell, Your rule changes are unconstitutional. Do not change the rules to make it easier for censorship and monopolies to prevail. The decision to change the rules is against public opinion.